

I request the FCC not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. The improvements of our time at home resulting from Indiana's Telephone Privacy law is such that we used to receive several calls each evening. Now we receive none!